28th November 2025

Another busy week with Year 5 going to the Science Museum, Year 2 receiving a visit from Mary Seacole, our Eco-Champions taking part in a Water Audit to help save the school money and finally our Decorations Day today. Thank you to everyone who sent in donations.

Word of God

Matthew 24: 37-44

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: 'For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Happy Birthday!

This week we have the following pupils celebrating their birthday: Angel-Lita, Capree, Martin, Nohamen & Vee.

Christmas Bazaar

Our Christmas Bazaar is on Friday 5th December 3.30-5.30pm. Please come and support our Young Entrepreneurs – all classes have responsibility for their own stall. The first 100 adults to come through the door will receive a goodie bag!

Father Jean-Laurent

Next Monday, Father Jean-Laurent is being made a Canon by Bishop Alan at a special service at the Cathedral. I am sure that you will join me in offering your congratulations and saying a special prayer for him this weekend.

Pantomime – Cinderella

On Monday, we have the pantomime visiting us for the second successive year. This time we are being treated to the story of Cinderella.

The cost of this is being covered by money raised through fundraising – all pupils will get to watch the show.
